

GUIDELINES GOVERNING RECEIPT OF GIFTS AND FAVORS BY STATE OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

Promulgated by the Executive Commission on Ethical Standards

1. Each department shall require full disclosure by employees to the office of the department head through the Ethics Liaison Officer upon receipt of a gift or any other thing of value, from a person, corporation, or association with whom they have had contact in their official capacity.
2. Each department should designate an Ethics Liaison Officer to monitor compliance with specific procedures under which officers and employees shall proceed upon receipt of a gift or any other thing of value, from a person, corporation, or association with whom they have had contact in their official capacity.
3. All officers and employees should be instructed that any gift or other thing of value received from a person or corporation with whom they have had contact in their official capacity must be reported and remitted immediately to the Ethics Liaison Officer. Similarly, any favor, service, employment or offer of employment from such person or corporation must be reported immediately.
4. Unsolicited gifts or benefits of trivial or nominal value, such as complimentary articles offered to the public in general, and gifts received as a result of mass advertising mailings to the general business public may be retained by the recipient or the recipient's department for general use if such use does not create an impression of a conflict of interest or a violation of the public trust. An impression of a conflict may be created, for example, if an employee of a regulatory agency uses a pocket calendar conspicuously marked with the name of a company that it regulates or if an office in a State agency displays a wall calendar from a vendor, creating the impression of an endorsement. If circumstances exist which create a reasonable doubt as to the intention with which the gift or benefit was offered, the other paragraphs of these Guidelines govern.

5. The Ethics Liaison Officer shall determine whether the gift, favor, employment, offer of employment, or anything of value was given or offered with the intent to influence or reward the performance of the recipient's public duties and responsibilities, or whether it may be reasonably inferred to have been given or offered with the intent to influence the performance of his or her public duties and responsibilities, or whether the use of the item will create an impression of a conflict of interest or a violation of the public trust.
6. Upon a determination that there was an intent or it could be reasonably inferred that there was an intent to influence the performance of the recipient's public duties and responsibilities, or that the use of the item will create the impression of a conflict or a violation of the public trust, the Ethics Liaison Officer shall return the gift or thing of value to the donor.
7. The Ethics Liaison Officer will have the responsibility of keeping the records of all such occurrences; names of the employees, individuals, and companies involved, and the final disposition of the gift or thing of value.
8. The assistance of the Director of the Executive Commission will be available to all Ethics Liaison Officers to aid them in the evaluation of individual cases.
